- Let me know details of your dances—if you don't tell me I can't include them in a future Newsletter or on the website.
- If you email them to me it means I don't have to type them out.
- If you don't have access to a computer then pop the programme into the post.

You can download a copy of this and previous Newsletters in 'pdf' format from the Web Site.

Click on the "Country Dance" Page then the "Newsletters" page, where they are listed in descending order.

The web page has up-to-date information on these dances and programmes as they are notified.

The Strathspey Database at <https://my.strathspey.org/dd/> is a comprehensive resource for Scottish country dancers, dance teachers, and musicians. It brings together information on Scottish country dances, formations, musical recordings, Scottish country dance tunes, and the people behind all of those — all conveniently linked together for easy perusal.

It contains Cribs and Diagrams for most of the dances and the facility for dance organisers to publish their dance programmes. These programmes are automatically linked to the appropriate dance Crib and/or Diagram together with any appropriate video of the dance.

Each programme has an index number e.g. 67182. Where known I now give the index number at the start of the appropriate programme as follows—[ SCDDB 67182 ]

MiniCribs

If you prefer to make up your own MiniCrib you can download the stand-alone programme from <https://www.minicrib.org.uk/> The latest version is 36_02 (February 2026)

MiniCrib dance descriptions are available in several formats:

Microsoft Word template for Windows PC or Windows laptop

If you have an different word processor (such as Open Office or LibreOffice) the MiniCrib template will not work BUT you can still download the MiniCrib Crib Database ("book" of dance cribs) in .docx or pdf format which work with any word processor - just copy and paste selected dances into a new document.

MiniCrib cribs are available FREE but in return please leave the MINICRIB footnote that appears on each page. If composing your own recap sheets then please acknowledge the source e.g.

"This cribsheet was prepared from the 'MiniCrib' database minicrib.org.uk "
or some similar text.
